

Self Evaluation Rubric for Story Map

Use this rubric to check your story map. It will help you see if you left out any important details.

	3 points (Excellent)	2 points (Complete)	1 point (Incomplete/Inaccurate)
Setting	Setting is accurately and vividly described through the use of adjectives.	Setting is accurate.	Setting is inaccurate.
Characters	All major characters are listed with names spelled correctly.	Major characters are listed.	Some major characters are missing.
Problem	The problem is a complete thought, and it is the one that gets resolved at the end of the story.	The problem in the story is listed.	The problem is different from the one that is solved at the end.
Events	Events are clearly described and are in the order they happened.	Main events are listed.	Some main events are left out or events are listed that are not in the story.
Outcome	The outcome is well- described using complete sentences.	Outcome is stated.	Outcome has nothing to do with the problem.